

Returnees help lead Mutiny past Surf

EAST LONGMEADOW - The New England Mutiny welcomed back faces new and not-so-old to the side in their much-anticipated UWS East Conference match against the New York Surf at East Longmeadow High School.

Forward Abby Sotomayor saw her first action in the Mutiny lineup since the first two games of this season, while New England veterans forward Chanel Johnson and midfielder McKenzie Hollenbaugh made their long-sought returns to the team. The renewed team karma seemed to work for the hosts, as the Mutiny (5-2) converted on two beautifully-built up passing sequences to notch a 2-0 shutout win over the Surf (4-2-2).

The Mutiny started out in good form and capitalized in the 14th minute after a corner kick. Sotomayor drove in a corner that New York goalkeeper Colleen Hickey (four saves) punched away. Defender Jennifer Cafferky collected the ball and with her back to goal, dropped her pass deftly to midfielder Charlie Branch who rocketed her shot inside the left netting. The Surf would put their own pressure on New England goalkeeper Gabby Arruda (three saves) in the first half, as the former SCSU shot-stopper's anticipation stopped a chance in the 28th minute while she smothered a shot from midfielder Furtuna Velaj in the 36th minute.

The Mutiny clung to the 1-0 lead as the second half progressed, and would tally the insurance goal in the 65th minute off their best passing sequence of the 2017 season. Branch switched the ball to midfielder Sage Dieterle who played it to midfielder Brenna Brown. Brown found team captain Kate Howarth with a touch pass on the wing and her cross reached Johnson who headed the ball under the cross bar for the 2-0 score. New York would have a pair of chances in the 78th minute on a shot from forward Maegen Doyle and Velaj would test Arruda again. In the end, though, New England held on for the 2-0 win. The hosts outs-hot the Surf by a 6-3 margin in a physical contest that saw them make 12 fouls to New York's four.

Bay State Games offers team tournament events

WOBURN - The 2017 Bay State Summer Games will feature team competitions in 7 v 7 field hockey, juniors basketball, high school boys basketball, 7 v 7 girls lacrosse and rugby. Tryouts are not required for these events and registration is by team.

The 7 v 7 field hockey competition will be held July 24 and 25 at Worcester State University. Divisions for high school, collegiate and post-collegiate players are included.

The juniors basketball tournament is for male and female teams in grades 5/6 and 7/8. The event will be held on July 15 and 16 at the Reggie Lewis Track and Athletic Center in Boston.

The Boys High School Basketball Classic will be held July 24 and 25 at the UMass Boston Clark Athletic Center. The tournament is open to any Massachusetts High School Basketball team and must consist of players in grades 9, 10 or 11 as of the 2016-2017 academic year.

7 v 7 girls lacrosse is a two-day tournament held on July 11 and 12 at the Veterans Field Complex in Waltham. The tournament is open to teams of players age 18 and under.

The Rugby 7's tournament will be held on Saturday, July 29 at the Irish Cultural Center in Canton. The competition includes division for grades 3/4, 5/6, 7/8, 9/10 and 11/12.

Athletes in all tournaments will receive Bay State Games t-shirts and be competing for prestigious Bay State Games gold, silver or bronze medals as well as medalist gifts. In select sports, medal winning teams will also receive invitations to compete in the 2019 State Games of America at Liberty University in Lynchburg, Va., which features medal winners from state games events across the country.

Participants who sign up prior to July 1 will save $25 on their entry fee.

For additional details on all sports as well as links to on-line registration, go to www.baystategames.org.

some noise in the seventh, before finally succumbing.

Kyle Trombley opened the game with a single and after Dayton Thomas walked and Tom Quinn reached on an error, they had the makings of a big inning with the bases loaded and no outs. Andrew Noonan grounded out forcing Quinn at second and on the play Trombley scored. Mike Hagelstein got out of the inning rather cheaply with a strikeout and a groundout. His teammates got that run back in a hurry. Clayton Beaulieu opened things with a double and went to third on a groundout. After Chris Hebert walked, Nick Frost drove Beaulieu home with a single. Brian Tessicini got the next two and the game was 1-1 after one.

Hagelstein was perfect for the next three innings and in the second and third, EITC took charge. With one out in the second, Justin Fromenta singled. Then after the second out, the next four reached base. Walks to Beaulieu and Connor Sheridan loaded the bases. Hebert singled in Fromenta and Beaulieu for a 3-1 lead. Frost got Sheridan home with his second hit of the game. EITC then dropped five more on Wilbraham in the third. Matt Baran got it going with a base hit and Shane Denault followed with a single sending him to third. It was bases loaded and no outs after a walk to Fromenta. Everyone stayed where they were on a pop to short, but a groundout by Beaulieu brought in Baran. Runners were at the second and third when a pickoff throw to second got away and that allowed Denault to come home. Sheridan single and then stole second. Both he and Fromenta scored on a single by Hebert. Frost put the capper on the inning with a double that plated Hebert. Now it was 9-1. It would be three up and three down in the fourth, fifth and sixth for EITC, but they had all the runs they would need.

Wilbraham finally put something together in the fifth. With one out Jason Gouin was hit by a pitch. After the second out, Trombley singled; Thomas doubled; Quinn singled. Two runs scored on the Thomas double and another on the Quinn single. Wilbraham came up empty in the sixth, getting a one out single from Kevin Baker. With one out in the seventh, they put something together. Trombley walked and Thomas singled. Quinn grounded out, Trombley scoring on the play.

Noonan brought in Thomas with a single, but Hagelstein finished it off with a strikeout and EITC had the win.

Hebert and Frost had big days. Frost went three for four and drove in three. Hebert was two for three and knocked in four. On the other side Trombley and Thomas were both two for three. Trombley scored three times, while Thomas had two RBIs and two runs scored.

EITC improved to 4-6-1 on the season. Wilbraham Funeral Home fell to 3-4-1.

had a couple chances in the 32nd minute, when Dost was wide left and then on the rebound, Sam Quinn was wide right. In the final minute, Luc Chauvin had a free kick from 25 yards for Granby.

The action picked up in the second half. Kaczor picked up a loose ball in the second minute, coming out 10 yards to do so. In the fourth, Dost was wide right and a minute after that, Max Piekos was on goal from 15 yards. It was not until the eighth minute that Granby had a shot and it was just to the left of the post by Trembly from 20 yards. Dost was wide right in the 10th, as was McCormick a minute later. In the 17th minute, Duarte was wide to the left.

Both teams had shots on goal in the 19th minute. On one end, it was Moriarty and then seconds later Wilkinson got downfield to test Walz. Quinn was stopped in the 22nd minute on a breakaway.

Chicopee kept up the pressure and in the 24th minute, Trystian Tylenda hit the right post from 12 yards. The ball rebounded to Seymour, who drove it home. Tylenda was credited with the assist. It was more pressure by Chicopee with shots on goal by Soja in the 26th and 27th minutes. Granby had its last chance to score in the 31st minute, when Blanchard sent a 12-yarder over the goal. With just 20 seconds left, Tylenda, who had hit the post found the back of the net for the game's final goal.
