"I also filled in for coach Crutch for one game last year," Webber said. "We lost that game to Easthampton, so I earned my first point as a head coach tonight. It would've been nice to get the win, but it was still a lot of fun."

While it was the first meeting between the two hockey teams in more than 10 years, the Orioles boys soccer team did defeat the Spartans in a penalty shootout in the 2014 Division 3 state semifinal match.

The Orioles hockey team, which has won a total of 31 games during the past three seasons, has played in the Western Mass. Division 3A semifinal game in three out of the past four years.

After beginning this season with a 5-3 loss to Easthampton, the Orioles defeated Mount Everett, 7-3, and tied Chicopee Comp 1-1.

"We now have a 1-1-2 record, but we held the lead in both of the games that we've tied this year, which is a little bit frustrating," said Belchertown senior forward Nathan Pacheco, who's a second-year captain. "We just have to prepare for our next game."

Pacheco, who has been playing hockey for the past seven years, is hoping to finish his high school career by playing in another postseason game in March.

"This is the youngest squad that we've had in my four years playing for this hockey team, but our goal is to still qualify for the playoffs. It would be awesome if we're able to accomplish that goal," said Pacheco, who has made the switch from defensemen to forward this season. "It has also been a lot of fun playing with all of the younger players on the team, especially my brother."

Matt Pacheco, who's a freshman forward, is a member of the first line, along with his older brother and sophomore forward Vaughn Gillen, who's an assistant captain.

At the 6:36 mark of the third period, Matt Pacheco put a rebound shot into the net past Oakmont sophomore goalkeeper Evan Taylor (30 saves). The initial shot, which deflected off the goalie pads, was taken from inside the left circle by Gillen.

"Our top line is playing very well right now," Webber said. "The Oakmont goalie was outstanding, but we just kept telling the guys to shoot the puck. We were hoping to score a goal on a rebound and Matt did that. He's a very hard worker and he does everything that we tell him to do."

The Orioles two starting defensemen against the Spartans were freshman Cody Lambert and junior Justin Pendrick. Sophomore goalkeeper Ethan Rajpold, who's a first-year starter, made a total of 37 saves in the game. Rajpold replaced Kyle Greene, who was an outstanding goalie during the past four years.

The other two seniors listed on the Orioles roster are Zach Rajpold and David Fredenburgh, who's a first-year member of the team.

Belchertown's other juniors are Brian Pendrick and Andrew Mugford, who was also given an assist on the third period goal.

The rest of the sophomore class are Chris Buffone, Francis Nigro, Nathan Ayers, and A.J. Velez.

Buffone, Nigro, and Velez are members of the Orioles second line.

"I thought our second line really stepped up tonight," Webber said. "They had just as many scoring chances as our top line did."

Rounding out the Orioles hockey roster are freshmen Jake Delaney, Colby Masse, and Dan Chrzanowski.

Less than two minutes after Belchertown had taken a 1-0 lead on Matt Pacheco's goal, the Spartans managed to tie the score on a breakaway goal by senior Joe Zadroga. It was assisted by senior Nick Stasukelis.
