

Monson Savings Bank announces the election of new corporators

MONSON – Monson Savings Bank is pleased to announce the election of five new Corporators.

At the bank's recent annual meeting, it was announced that Nikki Burnett, Cesar Ruiz, John Zienowicz, Ciara Speller, and Christian D'Amour had been elected by existing Corporators.

"We are pleased to welcome our new Corporators to the Monson Savings Bank family. These successful and well-regarded professionals will certainly lend their experience and expertise to add value to the Bank," said Dan Moriarty, Monson Savings Bank president and CEO. "Our Corporators' values align with ours. They are invested in the wellbeing of our local communities because, like Monson Savings, they are a part of these communities. We are confident in the guidance that they will offer us as Corporators. They will undoubtedly support the Bank in better serving our communities."

Nikki Burnett resides in Springfield and is the executive director of Educare Springfield. She also sits on national committees for the Educare Learning Network, such as the Educare Policy Work Group, the Collaborative Fundraising Advisory Board, and the Red Nose Day Advisory Board.

Additionally, she is a trustee for the Community Foundation of Western Mass and serves on the Distribution Committee as co-chair; the Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion subcommittee; and the Executive Committee. Burnett is also a member of the Baystate Community
