Stone Church hosts free concerts Dec 3 and 17

GILBERTVILLE – John P. Sacco, music educator and U.S. Air Force veteran, will lead two well-respected community music organizations in two free concert this December: Holiday Cheers by Weir River Jazz Ensemble on Sunday Dec. 3 and Christmastime is Here by The Weir River Concert Band on Sunday Dec. 17 at 2 p.m. at the Stone Church Cultural Center, 283 Main St., Route 32.

Donations for the Hardwick-New Braintree Christmas for Kids program in the forms of unwrapped toys for children aged newborn to 12, gift cards from $20-$50 and checks payable to Christmas for Kids will be gratefully received at both events. Local police will distribute these gifts to families in Hardwick and New Braintree. This season, there are more community needs than ever before, according to a police department spokesperson.

Weir River Jazz is a classic 'Big Band' jazz ensemble. Directed and led by Sacco on lead alto saxophone, the group's experienced brass and woodwind players, percussionists and vocalist enjoy improvisation. Their energetic, professional-level concerts include challenging holiday repertoire of many origins, always with a 'swing.'

A traditional concert band conducted by Sacco, Weir River Concert Band comprises brass, woodwind, and rhythm section players from teenagers to octogenarians. Originally created as part of the music program in the Ware public schools, the concert band offers performance opportunities to community musicians. The program is ambitious, including excerpts from Tchaikovsky's The Nutcracker, traditional French carols, holiday tunes with humor, and 'pops' orchestra arrangements for band. The group is actively seeking new members to start following this concert season. People may email Joanne Meegan at jomeegan@comcast.net or call 413-896-6373.

John P. Sacco was awarded the Silver Star for his actions in Vietnam in October of 1969. He trained at Boston Conservatory and taught music, becoming director of the music program for the Town of Ware public schools. Ever the optimist, Sacco reached out in September, 2020, at the height of the COVID pandemic, looking for a space for the groups to rehearse and "call their own." When Friends of the Stone Church agreed to provide the Stone Church Cultural Center, both Weir River Jazz and the Weir River Concert Band began rehearsing and performing in Gilbertville. Their concerts are free, with donations to FOSC accepted at all events for the cultural center's preservation and service to the community.
