Oliveira and Senate colleagues pass comprehensive tax relief package

BOSTON -- On Thursday, Sept. 28, Senator Jake Oliveira (D-Ludlow) and his colleagues in the Senate passed one of the most generous tax relief packages in decades aimed at providing responsible tax relief to Massachusetts' residents and businesses and making the Commonwealth more affordable, equitable, and competitive.

The total impact for fiscal year 2024 will be $561.3 million, with a $519.3 million on-budget impact. In fiscal year 2027, when fully phased in, the total impact will be $1.02 billion, with a $969.3 million on-budget impact. Senator Oliveira was encouraged by the package that will "put money back into people's pockets."

"When you look at this considerable and well thought out package, you're going to see tax relief that is focused on not only bringing equity to those who need it the most but also one that is both inclusive and far-reaching," said Oliveira.

Oliveira highlighted the significant impact the package would have on families.

"The expanded Child and Dependent Tax Credit will more than double what families can claim per dependent by 2024, going from 180.00 to 440.00," he said. "This will benefit more than 565,000 families and become the most generous universal child and dependent tax credit in the country. I'm grateful to the Conference Committee for this incredible expansion and my colleagues in the Legislature for agreeing to support families as much as possible."

Additional package highlights include increased earned income tax credit and the Senior Circuit Breaker Tax Credit. The earned income tax credit will increase from 30% to 40% of the federal credit increase and provide crucial support to working individuals and families, benefitting nearly 400,000 taxpayers with incomes under $60,000. The Senior Circuit breaker credit increase doubles the maximum senior circuit breaker credit from $1,200 to $2,400. This increase will make it easier for approximately 100,000 seniors who struggle with high housing costs to stay in their homes.

Oliveira also praised the Conference Committee's decisions to include credits for users of Regional Transit Authorities. A choice he believes shows the Legislature's commitment to regional equity. "The decision to make regional transit passes eligible for the commuter expense tax deduction shows the Legislature's commitment to all of Massachusetts, including the many folks out here in Western Mass who use regional transit in their daily lives."

Having passed the House of Representatives and Senate, the bill now goes to the governor for her consideration.

JOB OPENING

STAFF WRITER

Turley Publications, based in Palmer, is seeking a storyteller who is curious about everything, and who understands how town government works to join our team of weekly reporters.

Experience in covering town government is a huge plus, and any experience in community journalism is as well. Staff writers cover all aspects of communities from features to municipal meetings to crimes and fires. Successful candidates must have people skills, plenty of curiosity and able to tell a story.

If you're a self-starter who enjoys community journalism and who can envision themselves connecting with our communities, we encourage you to apply for this position. Not a remote position.

Qualifications should include:

- Bachelor's degree or equivalent experience
- A determination to get the story, whatever it might be
- Equally comfortable writing hard news, features and event coverage
- Ability to write clean copy in a fast-paced, deadline-driven environment
- Proficiency in Associated Press style

Please tell us in a cover letter why you would be a good fit for this position and send it along with a resume and three writing samples to
