

GOSHEN

Goshen Council on Aging list upcoming March events

GOSHEN – A traditional corned beef lunch will be prepared and served by Jerry Bird of Spruce Corner Restaurant on Tuesday, March 14 from 11:30 a.m.-12:30 p.m. at the Goshen Town Hall.

Goshen's own Bill O'Riordan has created a great event where seniors will hear songs and stories of growing up Irish from Dan Carey, the State Representative for the 2nd Hampshire District.

Carey comes from a long line of Irish families; his stories are sure to include a bit of blarney. He may bring along a few more Irishmen as well. People will wear green and come join the craic. Seniors should call Kerry Normandin (whose grandfather is from County Kerry) at 413-268-9354 by Wednesday, March 8 to let her know they will join come.

Joan Griswold offers exercise classes online every morning and in person in Chesterfield on Fridays.

If people are interested, they should contact Joan at 413-587-8337 or email joan@byhealth.com.

Piper Sagan, RN, is available to provide foot care to seniors in Goshen on an every other month basis. She will be in Goshen on Tuesday, March 7, and she also will do house calls. People may call Piper at 413-522-8432 to set up an appointment for this important health-care service. Cost is $50 dollars per person at Town Hall and $80 per person for home visit.

Pat Wheeler's knitting group will be held on the first Wednesday of the month which is March 1 from 1-3:00 p.m. in the upstairs dining room at the Goshen Town Hall. All are welcome and should bring knitting, crochet, drawing, needlework or any craft project. They may call Wheeler at 413-695-5503 for more information.

The Community Connections Group will be meeting on Friday, March 3 from 10 -11 a.m. in the Goshen Town Hall upstairs dining room. The COA is coordinating with the Hilltown CDC to gather for activities, discussion, and connection. The guest this month will be Hannah Jacobson-Hardy, owner of Sweet Birch Herbs in Ashfield, a community herbalism center with a focus on organic medicinal herbs and products. All are welcome.

Once a month technical support with computers and technology is now available at no cost. Peg Whalen is working with the COA to assist with questions about technology devices and their use, including smartphones, mobile phones, iPads, tablets, ePhoto frames, smart TVs, printing, laptops, internet and many apps and software programs. She is available between 10 a.m.-noon on the second Tuesday of each month in the upstairs dining room at the Town Hall. People should enter through the Library. People should call or text Peg at 413-404-4566 or email nhillcoastech@gmail.com in advance to schedule enough time for help with their specific needs.

The games group will be on Wednesday, March 15 from 1-3 p.m. and continue on the third Wednesday of each month. They meet in the upstairs dining room at the Town Hall. This will be in coordination with the Goshen Library and the library is open right afterwards. Snacks will be served.

The Highland Valley Elder Services lunch will be on Tuesday, March 21 and continuing on the third Tuesday of each month. It will be curbside pick up style for now from 11:30 a.m.-noon. The meal will be brown sugar glazed baked ham or vegetarian lasagna roll ups plus vegetables, milk and pumpkin bars for dessert. If people have not signed up and would like to for April, they may call Kerry Normandin at 413-268-9354 to fill out a brief intake form. There is a suggested $3 donation that is given to Highland Valley Elder Services to offset the cost of the meal.

Hilltown Community Development seeking feedback on Walking Map

GOSHEN – Hilltown Community Development seeks public feedback on the Goshen Walking Map.

This map was created to highlight easy to moderate walking routes in the town of Goshen. It is one of nine maps in close collaboration with town residents and Healthy Hampshire.

They are requesting residents visit www.hilltowncdc.org/healthyaging to view the map (click on the icon of the Goshen map on the right side of the page) and then email the Hilltown CDC their feedback to goshenwalks@gmail.com.

Hilltown Community Development is particularly interested to know if there are any inaccuracies, questions, concerns or suggested changes to the map. The deadline for public feedback is Friday, March 3.

People who would like to view a paper version of the map, should email goshenwalks@gmail.com including their name and address and Hilltown Community Development will mail a copy to then.

The map will be revised this spring and shared with the public at that time.
