Pathlight appoints Marcia Morris, of Wilbraham, as Chief Operating Officer

SPRINGFIELD – Pathlight, a pioneering organization serving people in western Massachusetts with developmental and intellectual disabilities, recently named Wilbraham resident Marcia Morris as its new Chief Operating Officer. Morris brings extensive experience and a proven track record in the field, making her an invaluable addition to the executive leadership team.

Previously serving as the Head of Operations for the Developmental and Brain Injuries Division at ServiceNet Inc., Morris has a broad range of leadership experience, including oversight of residential group homes, community-based day programs, and Shared Living programs. Morris also spearheaded the establishment and management of a new clinic offering Physical Therapy and Occupational Therapy services.

As the newly appointed COO at Pathlight, Morris assumes a critical leadership role, ensuring overall strategic and operational accountability for the organization's diverse service delivery programs and related administrative functions throughout Western Massachusetts. She will also play a key role in implementing new programmatic strategic initiatives and serving as a valuable member of the executive leadership team, providing direction and supervision to division Vice Presidents.

"I am absolutely thrilled to join the Pathlight team and be part of an organization that is truly making a difference in the lives of individuals with disabilities," said Morris. "Pathlight's mission resonates deeply with me, and I am wholeheartedly committed to pushing the boundaries of innovation to empower and support individuals with disabilities. Together, we will build upon Pathlight's remarkable legacy and drive positive change in our community."

Morris' appointment marks an exciting new chapter for the organization, as her leadership and vision will drive the implementation of cutting-edge systems, further elevating Pathlight's service offerings.

"We are thrilled to welcome Marcia to the Pathlight team," said John Roberson, Executive Director of Pathlight. "She brings a wealth of knowledge and experience to our organization, and we look forward to her expanding our innovative services for the benefit of the individuals and
