bingo game, a story walk, rock painting, crafts and raffles at the local libraries and “Kid-preneur Day” at the Main Street Farmer’s Market. Additionally, One Book, One Community sponsored lemonade stands on various Main Street Farmer’s Market dates, as well as at the Bushels of Fun Fest at Fern Valley Farm in August. Local children were invited to run the lemonade stands and all proceeds benefited the Hampden and Wilbraham Libraries and the Friends of Wilbraham Seniors.

The continued success of One Book, One Community of Hampden Wilbraham Regional School District is dependent upon the benevolence of the following groups and businesses: LUSO Federal Credit Union, which funds the purchase of the books for all district elementary school students as well as the raffle prizes for the scavenger hunt; Rice Fruit Farm, for offering free ice cream to children who complete the bingo game; the Wilbraham Open Space Committee, for hosting the rock painting event and inviting story walks to be installed on local trails; the Hampden and Wilbraham Libraries, for hosting events related to the book throughout the summer; Main Street Farmer’s Market, for inviting One Book to sell lemonade and further promote the program to market attendees; and countless community volunteers for ensuring a smooth roll out of the book reveal.

As the 2023 programming comes to a close, One Book, One Community looks ahead to 2024, which marks its tenth year in the Hampden Wilbraham Regional School District. Planning for next year’s programming will commence in January, and those interested in contributing to the group should email onebook.hwrsd@gmail.com for more information on how to get involved.

Fitzgerald Law names Wilbraham resident Andrea O’Connor as a shareholder

EAST LONGMEADOW -- Fitzgerald Law has named attorney Andrea M. O’Connor as a shareholder.

“Andrea’s depth of experience and teamwork has really helped our firm grow, so she was very deserving of appointment,” Seth Stratton, a shareholder with the firm, said. “Through her volunteer activities in the profession, Andrea has not only elevated her representation of clients but has also improved the practice of law in her specialty as well.”

O’Connor counsels corporate and consumer clients in all aspects of insolvency law, primarily including bankruptcy, asset protection, taxation, real estate, and commercial matters. Her experience representing debtors and creditors in all types of matters, from complex Chapter 11 cases to adversary proceeding litigation, as well as serving as a Chapter 7 Trustee for the District of Connecticut, allows her to analyze problems from all angles and develop creative solutions.

A resident of Wilbraham, O’Connor has 13 years of legal experience, including a clerkship for the U.S. Bankruptcy Court for the District of Massachusetts. She graduated cum laude from the University of Connecticut, Storrs, CT, where she earned a Bachelor of Arts. She graduated magna cum laude from the Western New England University School of Law, Springfield.

O’Connor is an active member of several bar associations, where she has served in various leadership roles; she also serves on the Massachusetts Bankruptcy Court’s Pro Bono Committee and Diversity Task Force. Her admissions include the State of Connecticut, the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, the United States District Court for the Districts of Connecticut and Massachusetts and the United States Court of Appeals for the First Circuit.

O’Connor is routinely called upon by professional organizations to author materials and present on insolvency related topics. She recently presented on the intersection of real estate and bankruptcy law, the new Subchapter V of Chapter 11, and complex bankruptcy sales for various Massachusetts and Connecticut bar associations. She presented this summer at the ABI Northeast Conference & Consumer Forum. Additionally, she currently co-chairs two annual bankruptcy conferences, one targeting western and central Massachusetts and one serving New England.
