Random Acts of Kindness

By Barb Turcotte

Though the names in this article are fictional because of some circumstances regarding the child, the collaborations and experiences are real. I'll be referring to the Christmas Angel as Angel, the aunt as Mary and the child as Grace.

A chance meeting can often change someone's life for better or worse, but this was certainly for the better! Just think back to the chance meeting when you met your now best friend or perhaps when you met your spouse? But imagine if your chance meeting was a Christmas Angel!

While Angel was having her hair done, she noticed a young girl named Grace, who was patiently waiting for who Angel thought was her mother to finish. Angel was so impressed with Grace's polite calm behavior she felt drawn to commend her for her good manners and compliment the mother as well. Hence the dialogue between Angel and Mary began.

During their conversation Mary revealed that Grace was her niece rather than her daughter but currently lived with her instead of her biological parents. Though Mary didn't reveal many details, she did tell Angel that Grace had previously been in a group home where her belongings were stolen, so when she came to Mary's she had nothing but the clothes on her back. Mary explained what an amazing young girl Grace was and how her temperament was always like that, just sweetness. She also described how Grace was always ready with a helping hand no matter the task and did things with no prompting. Mary also shared that no matter what she did for Grace she was so appreciative that it was fun doing things for her.

Angel is definitely her mother's daughter, like her mother she has a huge heart and is always wanting to help anyone in need. Angel's life has had its challenges, yet her positive attitude and willingness to help others has never wavered.

After having an insightful conversation with Mary, Angel decided she wanted Grace to know just how special she was and engaged Mary in the plan. Angel told me that when she left the salon she actually went to her car and sobbed thinking about Grace's past. That's when Angel truly became Grace's Christmas Angel. Unbeknownst to Mary or Grace they didn't realize what this chance meeting would result in. Though it truly doesn't matter, I just think it shows what true Random Acts of Kindness are about as all three, Angel, Mary and Grace, are of different cultures.

Angel knew that her plan would also help Mary, who so unselfishly was helping during this difficult situation, so she began contacting family and friends asking for their support to create a memorable Christmas for Grace. They, knowing her, jumped right in to help as elves to create Angel's vision. Angel was overwhelmed when she received well over 20 responses offering their help with amazing items and cash donations. Mary was also astonished when Angel showed up bearing all kinds of gifts. Angel included a card with the names of all the donors who had made this Christmas vision become a true miracle. Angel has been in contact with Mary since Christmas and she explained how much she and Grace have enjoyed playing the board games included. How wonderful that they weren't just put on a shelf, but that the true meaning of sharing is that Grace and her aunt share quality time together. Grace made a beautiful thank you card for Angel thanking her and everyone for the incredible Christmas they'd created for her!

Have you ever gone to a place where they display wish lists of children on a Christmas tree and decided to help make a child's wishes become reality? What a feeling it is, just the thought you've done that puts a smile on your own face and melts your heart with the vision it creates. Imagine being able to know the child you're helping and incorporating others to complete this Random Act of Kindness! Mary had no idea that Angel's plan would include a special gift for her as well, a prepaid hair appointment!

Though I'm not able to reveal real names, I thought this was such a heart-warming story I wanted to share it. Many think about generosity during the holiday season yet Random Acts of Kindness happen all during the year. I hope 2024 is a spectacular year for you and I can't wait to hear about your Random Acts of Kindness stories. There are so many truly incredible people amongst us, it's time to hear and recognize those good things happening in our own communities. Be someone who makes a difference by spreading positivity whether it be for someone you know or a stranger, kindness is always welcome! Happy New Year!

If you would like to tell me a story about a Random Act of Kindness please contact me at bdt514@aol.com or 413-788-7514. Who knows, you might see your story in this column, 'Just 'Cause' you witnessed, did or received something nice being done.

See you next month with another Random Act of Kindness!

eating apples along with a wax-wing or two."

The robins and wax wings also finished off the last of the fruit from the mountain ash and gleaned a bush with red berries. He said there were about three dozen robins and a half dozen cedar wax-wings in his yard as well as the "regulars" and two white-throated sparrows.

Grackles

I received an email from a woman, who had grackles at her feeder on Jan. 12. She also reported seeing some robins and a flock of about 30 to 40 juncos. She said she usually doesn't see grackles until spring.

Christmas bird count

Results for some Christmas Bird Counts that took place in our area are now available by visiting the website at <http://www.warivernatureclub.org/announcements.html>. Many new records were set, and many old ones broken, with high numbers of species and individuals recorded. An open, ice/snow-free landscape, unfrozen waterways, and an abundant wild food crop were combined factors that encouraged many species to linger longer than usual.

Feeder activity

Birds at my feeder before the Jan. 7 storm consisted mainly of a few juncos, a white-throated sparrow or two and a few chickadees and downy woodpeckers. That all changed on Sunday, Jan. 7. I saw my cardinal pair, bluejays, lots of chickadees and tufted titmice. I also had mourning doves, white-breasted nuthatches, a downy woodpecker and a few goldfinches.

Chicopee Register OBITUARY POLICY

Turley Publications offers two types of obituaries.

One is a free, brief Death Notice listing the name of deceased, date of death and funeral date and place.

The other is a Paid Obituary, costing $225, which allows families to publish extended death notice information of their own choice and may include a photograph. Death Notices & Paid Obituaries should be submitted through a funeral home to: obits@turley.com.

Exceptions will be made only when the family provides a death certificate and must be pre-paid.

GARDEN from page 4

Plan accordingly by not ordering more than you need. Tape and coated seed do still need to be kept as moist as regular sowings – maybe even more so, due to the additional layers.

I am excited to grow carrots again this year. Hopefully a bigger harvest will enable soup-making well into spring.

Tackling what types of carrots to grow and ensuring good germination and a healthy stand of seedlings will mean I am well on my way to achieving that goal!
