Hampden County Sheriff's Posse donates $45,000 to YWCA

CHICOPEE - The Hampden County Sheriff's Posse, an organization created this year to support domestic violence awareness and prevention across the county, presented a $45,000 donation to the YWCA of Western Massachusetts on Tuesday, Oct. 21, at Chicopee Country Club.

The donation was made in memory of Eileen Monaghan, executive assistant to Sheriff Nick Cocchi, who was tragically murdered by her boyfriend in 2024. Funds were raised during the Sheriff's Posse's first annual golf tournament, which drew more than 250 participants and supporters.

The Hampden County Sheriff's Posse operates under the Jay Caron Community Impact Foundation and works alongside Sheriff Cocchi to provide vital resources and assistance to victims of abuse. The group is dedicated to improving lives and creating positive change in the community through fundraising and outreach initiatives.

Sheriff Cocchi reflected on Monaghan's legacy during the presentation, saying, "If Eileen knew about this fundraising effort made on her behalf, she would have said, 'Thank you, but I've got it from here.' It was in her DNA to help support and guide people. Those of us who knew and loved her will never forget her, but we'll carry on in her spirit of kindness and compassion."

Elizabeth Dineen, CEO of the YWCA of Western Massachusetts, accepted the check and spoke about the pressing need for continued resources to help victims and survivors.

"We have four full-time therapists working with the Children Who Witness Violence program, and each one of them has between 25 to 45 people on the wait list," Dineen said. "This donation will help us expand our reach and ensure that more children and families receive the care they need."

The Children Who Witness Violence (CWWV) program provides trauma-informed counseling and supportive services for children ages 3–17 who have experienced or witnessed domestic violence or sexual assault. The program offers short-term intervention, generally 12 to 15 sessions, in English or Spanish, in a safe and nonjudgmental environment.

Dineen also noted that the donation will help expand the YWCA's Healthy and Empowering Relationship Education (H.E.R.E.) Project, which equips young people with the skills and confidence to identify and interrupt cycles of violence. Currently offered in Springfield to youth ages 12–18, the H.E.R.E. Project partners with local schools to deliver three evidence-based programs:

- One Love, addressing healthy relationships and teen dating violence
- Bout That Life, focusing on bystander intervention and challenges faced by BIPOC youth
- Not A Number, addressing risk and protective factors for sex trafficking

Fairview Cemetery cleanup

CHICOPEE – The Fairview Cemetery Commission and Chicopee Parks Department would like to remind families of loved ones buried at the Fairview Cemetery that plantings in the ground are not allowed. The Fairview Cemetery Commission and Parks Department are requesting that all plantings (flowers, shrubs, etc.) on graves and all decorations be removed by October 19th. Cemetery staff will begin their fall cleanup that week and any remaining plants and decorations will be removed and discarded.

In an effort to improve safety of employees and those visiting the cemetery, the Fairview Cemetery Commission approved the revisions to the rules and regulations of Fairview Cemetery in January 2019. Artificial grave ornaments, artificial flowers, enclosures of any kind, and new plantings in the ground are not allowed as they are hazardous to both visitors and workers. Holiday pots and boxes will only be allowed during the Memorial Day and Holiday seasons. Notices are being sent to deed owners regarding the removal of plants and/or decorations on their lots.

The Fairview Cemetery Commission would also like to remind visitors to the cemetery that dogs and other animals are not allowed in the cemetery.

For a complete list of Fairview Cemetery rules and regulations, fees and charges, and monument policies, please visit www.chicopeema.gov/384/Fairview-Cemetery or call the Parks and Recreation Office at 594-3481.

Holy Name Christmas Bazaar

CHICOPEE - The Holy Mother of the Rosary Church will hold a Christmas Bazaar and Raffle on Friday, Nov. 7 and Saturday, Nov. 8 from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. in the Church Hall, 20 Bell Street, Chicopee.

There will also be Polish and American food as well as baked goods available.

COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS THE TRIAL COURT HAMPDEN, Div. Probate & Family Court Dept. HD25E0040PP

To Redsock Properties, LLC, of Rockville, Maryland, Montgomery County, and to all other persons interested

A petition has been presented to said Court by Gail Goodrow, of Ludlow, Hampden County, representing that they hold as joint tenants in an undivided part or share of land lying in Chicopee, in the County of Hampden, setting forth that they desire that all of said land may be sold at private sale or public auction for not less than Two Hundred Fifty-Six Thousand Seven Hundred ($256,700.00) Dollars, and praying that partition may be made of all the land aforesaid according to law, and to that end that a commissioner be appointed to make such partition and be ordered to make such partition and conveyance of all, or any part of said land which the Court finds cannot be advantageously divided either at private sale or public auction, and be ordered to distribute the net proceeds thereof after full adjudication of the equitable claims contained in said petition and supplemental memorandum filed with the Court.

If you desire to object thereto, you or your attorney, should file a written appearance in said Court at Springfield before ten o'clock in the forenoon on the sixteenth day of December 2025, the return day of this citation.

Witness, BARBARA M. HYLAND, Esquire, First Justice of said Court, this 16th day of October 2025.
