the Warrior and Family Support Center. Since then he has completed four sculptures and multiple paintings. Kleinedler's courageous story and ordeal brought to life to the students the sacrifices that veterans have made serving our country and protecting our way of life. Joinville and the Quaboag band closed the ceremony by playing each of the service songs. When the song of each branch played the veterans in attendance and the students who had family in those branches stood to be recognized. At the end of the service songs more than half the auditorium was standing, showing the impact that Veterans have on all of us. Any Quaboag or Warren High alumni that served in the military are encouraged to submit an application form and picture to be included in the next Veterans Wall induction. Email Salvatore at jsalvatore@quaboagrsd.org or call the school for the forms.

Eighth grade students folded the flag.
