COLTS from page 7

A 3-pointer by junior guard Noah Hambley, who finished with a game-high 18 points, sliced the Tigers deficit to two points (47-45) with 1:25 remaining.

Then Haney sealed the deal by making four straight foul shots in the final minute.

“We always seem to start every game slowly, but I’m very proud that we were able to battle back late in the game. It took a total team effort to get the job done tonight,” said Fay, who has played many basketball games at Blake Arena in the past with his AAU team. “It was a lot of fun getting to playing another game on this court. It was an awesome environment.”

Playing on a college size court didn’t seem to bother the Tigers players as they scored the first nine points.

“We were very focused at the start of the game,” Gerber said. “I thought we played very well until the end.”

Loughrey, who has scored more than 500 career points, began things with a put-back hoop. He also added an inside basket following a Hambley jumper before a 3-pointer from senior guard Isiah James (9 points) increased South Hadley’s lead to 9-0 with 3:25 left in the opening frame.

“It felt great when we jumped out to an early 9-0 lead,” Hambley said. “Comp is a very good basketball team, but we knew that we could compete with them.”

Chicopee Comp finally broke the ice ten seconds later following a Kelps old fashion three point play.

The Colts, who made a total of eight 3-pointers, took the lead for the first time at 11-9 with 1:30 remaining in the quarter when Fay drained a 3-pointer from the right side.

A lay-up by James tied the score for the first time at the end of the first quarter.

James also hit a base-line jumper less than a minute into the second quarter before Hambley took over the spotlight.

Hambley scored 11 points during the second quarter. He made a 3-pointer, two lay-ups and four foul shots, which gave his team a 26-19 halftime lead.

With 3:15 left in the third quarter, a Loughrey inside hoop increased the Tigers lead to 32-23.

Loughrey wound up scoring all the Tigers points during that quarter.

Kelps scored seven points over the final three minutes of the third quarter, which closed the gap to 34-30.

In the final seconds of the quarter, Comp senior guard Colby Paul (6 points) buried a 3-pointer from the left side making it a one point game entering the final eight minutes.

The Tigers managed to hold onto the lead for the first five minutes of the final quarter before the Colts came storming back.

ment that is unfolding before us.

The earth itself seems to be holding its breath, waiting for the show to begin. With eyes focused eastward, we watch the black of night turn into the blazing red of dawn. The stars above are being replaced with an inferno of fiery reds and blazing oranges-like molten lava spreading as the horizon slowly burns.

And there it is. The shimmering golden sphere we have been waiting for, spreading its golden light down the mountainside and awakening the earth from its slumber. The brilliant rays stretch from the heavens and dance upon the earth, giving life to everything they touch.

This experience is just one of the many that will burn in our hearts and memories for as long as there is breath in our lungs. An experience that we may never have witnessed had we not decided to chase a dream ten years ago. Had we waited until we retired. Had we waited for ‘some day’ to arrive.

I implore you to not allow your age, fitness level, current circumstances, past failures or ANYTHING ELSE dictate what you are capable of! I encourage you to chase the dream, seize the opportunity and never live regretting what could have been if only you had taken the chance. We have but one wild and crazy life. TODAY is the day to go out and LIVE it.

Tom and I have lived life to the absolute fullest over the past 10 years. Adventuring on weekends and vacations from work. But for one of us, at least, life is opening up to even more possibilities and opportunities. I’m thrilled to announce that after dedicating fifty years of his life to his career, Tom completed his final day as a working man on the last day of 2025!

See you in the wild places, my friends
