nechaug starter missed practice the day before facing Comp due to injuries.

Sophomore Max Fer-gus, who’s one of the Fal-cons leading scorers, will miss the rest of the season with an injury.

“We’re a little bit banged up,” Orzech said. “The guys tried their best to battle out there. I’m proud of their effort.”

The Falcons made just three field goals and a 3-pointer during the first 16 minutes of the quarterfinal game.

“Comp put a lot of pressure on us defensively,” Orzech said. “They just shut us down offensively.”

A total of seven Min-nechaug scored in the tour-nament game against Comp, but none of them reached double figures.

The duo of Elijah Kleps and senior Brody Fay (16 points) combined to score 31 points for the Colts.

Fay, who became a member of the elite 1,000 point club at the end of the regular season, scored 13 points in the second half.

The other three seniors listed on the Comp varsity basketball roster are Modesto Galindrez (7 points), Colby Paul (6 points), and Francis Jordan.

Galindrez made a lay-up and a pull-up jumper, which increased Comp’s lead to 8-2 with less than two minutes left in the opening quarter.

Following an inside hoop from Minnechaug senior Miles Fergus (7 points), his classmate, Landyn Eldridge, knocked down a 3-pointer, which closed the gap to 8-7 twenty seconds into the second quarter.

The Falcons’ leading scorer was senior Drew Gras-so with eight points.

The visitors from Wil-braham was only trailing, 11-9, with a little more than three minutes left in the second quarter before the Colts ended the first half with a 9-0 run.

The home team built a 20-9 halftime lead following four consecutive free throws by Elijah Kleps, who made nine of his 11 attempts from the free throw line.

“Elijah went to the line a lot in tonight’s game,” Miller said. “Everyone contributed offensively.”

Both teams scored 15 points during the third quarter.

The Colts entered the final eight minutes of regulation holding a 35-24 lead.

Elijah’s twin brother, Xavier, who’s the Colts sixth man, scored all five of his points in the fourth quarter.

With 2:35 left in regu-lation, Xavier Kleps drained a 3-pointer giving the home team a 47-27 lead.

At that point, the Colts players and supporters were probably already thinking about the semifinal match-up.

first responders can get to you. If you’re able to take aspirin, chew two 81-milligram children’s aspirin or one regular aspirin. Aspirin will help keep your platelets from clotting, and chewing them will get the medication into your blood-stream faster.

People with cardiac issues often are prescribed nitroglyc-erin. If you have some around, place one under your tongue.

Then, and this is a tough one, do your best to stay calm and quiet. Avoid exertion. Take deep, steady breaths. Count slowly to 100 (one Mississip-pi, two Mississippi...). Sit up-right with your back support-ed, or you can lie on the floor or bed with your legs elevated.

Don’t eat or drink anything. You don’t want to risk aspiration if you lose con-sciousness, and if you need an immediate procedure, such as a catheterization, your stom-ach should be as empty as pos-sible.

And don’t cough. Johns Hopkins advises: “This prob-ably won’t work, and worse still, attempting this technique may put you in more danger. Attempting this procedure on your own can cause you to accidentally work against the rhythm of your heart and make it harder to get oxygen into your blood rather than easier.”

I’ve said it before and I’ll say it again: Dr. Facebook is not the best source of medical advice. Stick with authoritative sources like WebMD, univer-sity hospitals and the Centers for Disease Control and Pre-vention (cdc.gov). And don’t believe everything you read.
