Ana Goncalves, 89

Ana Goncalves, 89, of Ludlow, passed away peacefully surrounded by her loving children.

Ana was born on September 11, 1936, in the small village of Travassos da Chã, Portugal.

She later immigrated to Venezuela with her husband, Avelino Goncalves, where they began their family and welcomed their two sons. They eventually settled in Ludlow, Massachusetts, where they completed their family with the birth of their daughter.

Ana's greatest joy in life was her family. She loved traveling and cherished the many trips she took to Portugal over the years. One of her proudest accomplishments was fulfilling a dream of bringing each of her grandchildren to the village where she was born and raised. She also treasured the many winters spent in Florida with her children and grandchildren.

Above all else, Ana was a devoted wife, mother, grandmother, and great-grandmother. Her grandchildren were truly the center of her world. She helped raise them and loved each of them unconditionally. The bond she shared with her family was extraordinary, and the love she gave will continue to live on through them for generations.

Ana will be deeply missed by her three children: Matias Goncalves and his wife, Ermelinda; Manuel Goncalves and his wife, Donna; and Anna Gomes and her husband, Luis, all of Ludlow. She also leaves behind her eight beloved grandchildren: Manuel Goncalves Jr. and his wife, Daniela; Alexander Goncalves and his wife, Stephanie; Michael Goncalves and his girlfriend Alyssa; Adam Goncalves; David Goncalves and his fiancée, Shayla; Mariana Goncalves and her fiancé, Brendan; Luis Gomes and girlfriend Madison; and Emma Cavanaugh and her husband, Owen, all of whom adored their grandmother dearly. She was also blessed with her treasured great-grandson, Luca Goncalves.

She is also survived by her brother-in-law, Custódio Goncalves; her sister-in-law, Joaquina Goncalves; and many cherished nieces and nephews.

Ana was predeceased by her beloved husband of 62 years, Avelino Goncalves; her brother, Manuel Fernandes (Lucia); her sister, Maria Rodrigues (Mario); her sisters-in-law, Ana (João) and Ana (Avelino); and her brothers-in-law, João (Ana), Antonio (Idalina), and Fernando (Maria).

Funeral services for Ana were held on Saturday, July 11. Calling hours were from 9 to 10:15 a.m. at Ludlow Funeral Home, followed by a Liturgy of Christian Burial at 11 a.m. at Our Lady of Fatima Parish. Burial followed at Saint Aloysius Cemetery.

Pioneer Valley Financial Charitable Fund donates $10,000 to support TJO Animal Shelter's response to parvovirus and panleukopenia

SPRINGFIELD, Mass. — The Foundation for TJO Animals is pleased to announce a generous $10,000 donation from Pioneer Valley Financial Charitable Fund to support the Thomas J. O'Connor Animal Control and Adoption Center (TJO) as it responds to recent cases of parvovirus and panleukopenia that temporarily disrupted shelter operations.

The gift will provide critical funding to help the shelter recover from the outbreak and ensure it has the supplies needed to continue providing lifesaving care to animals. Funds will be used to replenish personal protective equipment (PPE) and parvovirus vaccines for the veterinary clinic, as well as purchase diagnostic tests, treatment supplies, cleaning and disinfecting products, and food for the animals currently in the shelter's care.

"An outbreak like this, places an enormous strain on shelter resources," said Janna Brown, Executive Director of the Foundation for TJO Animals. "Every day, the veterinary and animal care teams are working tirelessly to protect the health of the animals while preventing further spread of disease. This generous donation from Pioneer Valley Financial Group allows the clinic to replace critical supplies and continue providing the highest level of care during a very challenging time."

Parvovirus and panleukopenia are highly contagious viral diseases that primarily affect puppies and kittens, as well as unvaccinated animals. Managing these illnesses requires strict isolation protocols, enhanced sanitation procedures, additional personal protective equipment, specialized medical treatment, and increased vaccination efforts, all of which significantly increase operating costs for the shelter.

"This contribution is about more than replacing supplies," Brown added. "It's about ensuring that every animal who comes through the doors has access to the medical care, protection, and nutrition they need while their team works to safely navigate this situation."

The Foundation for TJO Animals serves as the nonprofit fundraising partner for the Thomas J. O'Connor Animal Control and Adoption Center, providing financial support for veterinary care, medical equipment, shelter improvements, enrichment programs, and emergency treatment for thousands of animals each year.

The Foundation extends its sincere gratitude to Pioneer Valley Financial Group for stepping forward when the need was greatest. Their generosity will have an immediate impact on the health and well-being of the animals in TJO's care.

For more information about the Foundation for TJO Animals or to support its mission, visit the Foundation's website or contact the Foundation office.
